

Welcome to my program

You have three buttons to choose from: First button is greetings if you press it the program will tell you hello.

Second button is bell if you press this a bell sound will play as many times as you press it.

Third and final button is music, if you press the button once it will start playing the music

If you press it again it stops the music and resets it so if you press it again it starts from the beginning.